National Collegiate A.A. Championships

By Charles M. Speidel, Wrestling Coach, Pennsylvania State College.

The eleventh annual National Collegiate Athletic Association wrestling championship tournament was returned to the East in 1938 and held in the spacious Recreation Hall of Pennsylvania State College, at State College, on March 25-26, 1938. Eighty-six wrestlers from twenty-nine colleges in sixteen states took part in the tournament.

The Cowboys from Oklahoma A. & M. maintained their monopoly on the team title, scoring 19 points to 15 for Illinois and 12 for Indiana. It had been expected that the tourney would be a walkaway for the team coached by the veteran Ed Gallagher, but surprising opposition came from the midwestern colleges.

The tournament was a championship of champions, with all the sectional leaders represented. Newcomers to the Nationals were Utah State, San Jose College of California, and City College of New York.

Competition was keen and a great deal of clever wrestling exhibited. Of significance was the interesting variance in wrestling styles demonstrated by grapplers from the different sections. It was also interesting to note that a few of the better Eastern competitors showed the most open style, and because of the variety of their maneuvers proved most entertaining for the spectators. This was particularly true with respect to Dick Harding of Princeton, who had reached the semi-finals, and Curtis Ford of Lehigh, a finalist in the 165-lb. class.

Lads from the Big Ten seemed generally more rugged, and for the most part were conservative, cautious wrestlers. From the West and Southwest the boys were versatile and skilled enough to adapt a style necessary for any particular bout. The knowledge, experience and general equipment of the Oklahomans was again much in evidence, but it was heartening for other coaches to note marked improvement in the representatives of other sections.

It was the general opinion of the coaches that the rule changes brought about a more aggressive, popularized style in the 1938 tournament and that the elimination of the watch had in turn eliminated a good bit of offensive stalling.

The organization and management of the tournament on the part of the Rules Committee, Penn State Athletic Association officials and student managerial staff was highly efficient and especially reflected credit on the tourney manager, George Jarden, who not only directed the thousand-and-one details to perfection but handled the public address system like a professional.

For the consideration of future tournament managers it might be pointed out that the finals, for the first time, were run off without the distraction of second and third place bouts going on simultaneously. This was a popular move from a spectator standpoint and improved the "staging" of the affair from a dramatic angle. In this respect, Klieg lights and low overhanging lights, with movie cameras clicking and the rest of the hall darkened, all added to the impressiveness of the finals.

One thing proved definitely was that the all-night sessions which marred past tournaments are needless in the future if the tournament is held where three mats can be utilized and if it is managed properly. In 1933 three mats were used for the preliminaries, which were completed before eleven o'clock. The finals, followed by all the consolation bouts (three mats), were also completed before eleven.

The Coaches' Trophy for the outstanding wrestler in the tournament was presented to Joseph McDaniels of Oklahoma A.&M., the 118-lb. champion. McDaniels successfully defended his title with ease, outclassing a field of exceptional wrestlers including several sectional champions.

Western Conference (Big Ten)

By Clifford Keen, Coach University of Michigan.

Every college in the Big Ten Conference had a wrestling team in 1938 and each had a complete dual meet schedule. There were three outstanding teams, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan, with all quite evenly matched. The conference championship was decided solely on the basis of points scored in the conference tournament held at Northwestern University. Indiana was undefeated in dual meet competition, but was nosed out by Michigan in the tournament.

Points scored toward the team championship were as follows:

TEAM POINT SCORES.

Michigan	28	Wisconsin	5	Iowa	1
Indiana	25	Minnesota	3	Northwestern	0
Illinois	19	Ohio State	2	Purdue	0
Chicago	5

In the 118-lb. class John Speicher of Michigan won the title, finally achieving his ambition by defeating Bob Myers of Indiana, defending champion. Myers was second and Dale Hanson of Minnesota third.

In the 126-lb. division Al Sapora of Illinois, defending champion, was defeated by Willard Duffy of Indiana. Sapora won second and Paul Cameron of Michigan was third.

In the 135-lb. division another conference champion lost his title when Earl Thomas of Michigan was defeated by Joe Roman, outstanding Indiana sophomore. Roman was defeated in the finals by Archie Deutschman of Illinois. Deutschman was first, Roman second and Thomas third.

In the 145-lb. division another conference champion was defeated when Bob Finwall of University of Chicago bowed to Lederman of Wisconsin. Lederman was first, Finwall second and Harold Nichols of Michigan third.

In the 155-lb. division Harland Danner of Michigan won the title. Keeler of Indiana was second and Meyer of Ohio State University third.

In the 165-lb. division John Ginay of Illinois was the only champion from 1937 who was successful in protecting his title. Dick Tasch of Michigan was second and Sam Hyde of Indiana third.

In the 175-lb. class Don Nichols, brilliant sophomore from University of Michigan, was first; Traicoff of Indiana was second and Mutter of Illinois third.

In the heavyweight division Joe McDaniels won first, Gustafson of Minnesota, defending champion, was second and Downs from Ohio State third.

Missouri Valley I.C.A.A. (Big Six) Conference

By Paul V. Keen, University of Oklahoma.

Wrestling in the Big Six Conference for 1938 was about on a par with the sport in other years. Kansas University and Missouri University did not have teams, but the other four teams—Iowa State, Kansas State, Nebraska and Oklahoma—completed dual meet schedules and entered full teams in the conference tournament held at Ames, Iowa, March 4 and 5.

In the latter tournament, competition was the closest it has ever been in the ten years the conference has been organized. The championship was decided in the final match. Robertson of Oklahoma won a fall from Clare of Nebraska for third place and the team championship for Oklahoma.

Three men representing Kansas State accounted for victories, VanVleet at 135 lbs.; Reynard, 175 lbs., and Hackney, heavyweight. Matthews of Oklahoma went on to win the N.C.A.A. 135-lb. championship.

Intercollegiate Wrestling in Oklahoma

By E. C. Gallagher, Oklahoma A.& M. College.

Oklahoma again strengthened its ranking as the nation's No. 1 wrestling state by capturing both national championships. Oklahoma A.& M. College, undefeated in nine dual meet matches for the season, won both the National Collegiate A.A. and National A.A.U. team titles.

University of Oklahoma and Southwestern State Teachers of Weatherford tied for fourth place in team standings at the national intercollegiate. Additional state honors included the championship of the annual Big Six Conference tournament, won by Oklahoma University.

Within the state, A. & M. regained its state college league championship, relinquished for the first time to Southwestern a year previously. A. & M. was the state's only unbeaten team and gained permanent possession of the Sam Avey trophy for winning three state team titles since the cup was first offered.

Southwestern, defending league champion, was runner-up to A. & M. last season and won the state teachers college conference championship for 1938. Oklahoma University finished third in the state league, nosing out Central State Teachers of Edmond by a surprising win in the final league match of the year.

Final standings in the state college league for 1938:

Eastern Intercollegiate Championships

By William Sheridan, Coach Lehigh University.

The thirty-fifth annual Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association championships were held at Cornell University, March 11 and 12, 1933, and once more the intense rivalry of the league resulted in some exceptionally keen battles for individual honors.

The team title was won by Lehigh by a margin of two points over Princeton, an almost exact duplicate of the meet held at Princeton two years previously. The ultimate winner of the championship was not determined until the final third-place matches were completed, so that the interest of spectators and competitors alike was at a high pitch until the last decision was rendered.

Lehigh and Princeton each had three individual champions, Harvard had one and Cornell one. John C. Harkness of Harvard, winner of the title in the 175-lb. division, was the recipient of the trophy awarded to the "outstanding wrestler of the tournament." Harkness was also winner of the 175-lb. national championship title in the National Collegiate A.A. championships at Penn State College two weeks later.

The Eastern Intercollegiate tournament is the oldest wrestling tournament in the country and each year the interest of spectators and competitors seems to be on the increase.

Southern Conference

By H. M. Read, Virginia Military Institute.

WRESTLING IN DISTRICT III

Intercollegiate wrestling in District III continued to be supported by about twenty teams, seven of which are members of the Southern Conference, with a membership of fifteen institutions. Interest from the Mississippi River up through Maryland is chiefly centered in the States of Virginia and North Carolina.

The revival of the Southern Conference tournament did much to encourage the sport in conference territory. Held under the auspices of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, March 4 and 5, 1938, the sixth annual tournament was won by Virginia Military Institute with a team score of 32 points. Washington and Lee, with 29 points, was runner-up, reversing the 1936 result when Washington and Lee nosed out V.M.I., 33 to 30. No tournament was held in 1937.

The V.M.I. Cadets dominated the championships in the individual classes, crowning four titleholders and scoring three second places and one third place. Seven teams were entered, but North Carolina State College wrestlers were forced to withdraw because of term examinations. The State team won six of seven dual meets, losing only to Washington and Lee.

In meets with strong teams outside the conference, the members of the conference made much better showings than some of the dual meet scores would indicate.

Results of the Southern Conference championships were as follows:

Intercollegiate Wrestling in the Rocky Mountain Region

By John W. Hancock, Greeley State College.

Interest and participation in intercollegiate wrestling in the Rocky Mountain region is greater than ever before. Reports from nearly every college indicate that there are more men out for wrestling now than at any time in the past.

Intercollegiate wrestling in the Rocky Mountain region consists of two groups—the Mountain States Conference (Big Seven) and the Rocky Mountain Conference. The Mountain States Conference is divided into Eastern and Western divisions. Eastern Division schools are: Colorado University, Wyoming University, Denver University and Colorado State. Western Division schools comprise: Utah University, Utah State and Brigham Young University. Utah State won Five schools form the Rocky Mountain Conference: Montana State College, Western State College, Colorado College, Colorado Mines and Greeley State. The wrestling title in this conference last season ended in a tie, with Western State and Greeley State as co-champions.

Mountain States Athletic Conference

By Pete Couch, Coach University of Utah.

Athletic officials as well as wrestling coaches in the Western Division of the Mountain Athletic Conference were greatly encouraged with the added interest shown the past year.

Competition is becoming so keen that only three points separated the title-winning Utah State College and the third place Utah University team, Brigham Young University finishing second.

Utah University, four-time conference winners were forced to relinquish their title to one of the best balanced teams ever to represent Utah State College.

Individual titles were well distributed, Utah University winning in the 145-lb., 175-lb. and heavyweight divisions. Utah State College won the 118, 126 and 165-lb. classes, while B.Y.U. carried off honors in 135 and 155-lb. events.

UTAH STATE COLLEGE, LOGAN, UTAH.

It is hoped that within the next year or two a regular Mountain States Conference meet will be held in which the seven schools will compete for conference honors rather than having an Eastern and a Western division.

In the final standing of the Western Division meet, held at Utah State College, Logan, Utah State won with 31 points, B.Y.U. was second with 30, and Utah University with 28. Individual title winners were as follows:

118 lbs.—Bench (Utah State).
126 lbs.—Grandy (Utah State).
135 lbs.—Lewis (BYU).
145 lbs.—Banks (Utah).

155 lbs.—Hullinger (BYU).
165 lbs.—Roundy (Utah State).
175 lbs.—Armantrout (Utah).
Heavyweight—Schleckman (Utah).

Utah State also won the state title by defeating both Utah and B.Y.U. In dual competition Utah defeated B.Y.U.

The Utah State High School Association held a state wrestling meet for the first time last season. This should add considerable interest to the already popular college sport.

Intercollegiate Wrestling on Pacific Coast

By Henry A. Stone, University of California.

Wrestling is showing a slow but steady growth in the Northern Division of the Conference. Last season a few non-Conference colleges added wrestling to their athletic program. The University of Idaho was undefeated in dual competition. Washington Montana and Washington State College all lost to the Vandal matmen, but in a return engagement Washington State held them to a tie. The Northern Division championships were held at Seattle on March 12, 1938. The best Idaho, defending champion, could do was third, behind Washington State and University of Washington, who tied for first place. The Northern Division produced outstanding men in Kawahara (Washington), Huntington (Idaho) and Semancik (Washington State College).

Individual championships were distributed as follows:

118 lbs.—Eamon (Washington State). 126 lbs.—Kawahara (Washington). 135 lbs.—Macy (Idaho). 145 lbs.—Huntington (Idaho). 155 lbs.—Truscott (Washington). 165 lbs.—Tschantz (Washington State). 175 lbs.—Arwood (Washington). Heavyweight—Semancik (Washington State).

In the Southern Division the season was a great success. There is more interest than ever before. University of Nevada and Whittier College have added wrestling to their list of competitive sports. San Jose State College was undefeated in all their dual meets. University of California, after dropping their first meet of the season to San Jose, completed the remainder of the season with a clear record. The conference championships were held at Berkeley, April 7 and 8, 1938. University of California won its tenth consecutive championship, scoring 42 points. The conference championships were held at Berkeley, April 7 and 8, 1938. San Jose State was second, with 29; University of California at Los Angeles was third, with 21, and Nevada fourth, with 5. Other entrants failed to score. Outstanding performers were Dalo (California) and Kerfoot (UCLA). Results:

Wrestling in California Junior Colleges

By Alvin Stonehocker, Fullerton Junior College.

The past two years have been marked by a great increase in interest and participation in wrestling in California junior colleges. In Northern California, Modesto Junior College and San Mateo Junior College have both been represented in competition, scheduling high schools and college freshman teams. In the southern part of the state Fullerton Junior College has had a successful season.

Fifty boys reported to Coach Alvin Stonehocker at Fullerton Junior College last season. Their dual meet schedule consisted of eight meets. In junior college competition they remained undefeated for the second year and were beaten only by a narrow margin by San Jose State and Whittier.

Los Angeles Junior College continued its 1938 wrestling season under the direction of Coach Milton Hand. They are members of the S.P.A.A.U. Wrestling League, which has a dual schedule consisting of eight dual meets. In this still competition they were unable to place very high. However, they took first in the S.P.A.A.U. Novice Tournament, with one first and three seconds, to gain a net total of 14 points.

Santa Monica Junior College, under its new coach, James Crossman, entered a full team in the Southern California Junior College Association tournament. This is an increase over the previous year, showing that wrestling has become more popular at that institution. Although their point tally in the tournament was small, their squad showed a definite improvement in both wrestling ability and competitive spirit. Intramural wrestling constituted their main events and no dual meets were scheduled. This year they hope to enter in a regular dual schedule with other junior colleges in the Southern California section.

The second annual Southern California Junior College championships were held at Fullerton, May 6, 1938. A total of forty-two entries were received. Fullerton J.C. won, with 55 points; Los Angeles J.C. was second, with 38 points, and Santa Monica J.C. third, with 6 points. Individual winners were as follows:

112 lbs.—Norte (LAJC). 118 lbs.—Ymuchu (LAJC). 126 lbs.—Glasheen (FJC). 135 lbs.—Blue (LAJC). 145 lbs.—Barels (FJC). 155 lbs.—Cummins (FJC). 165 lbs.—White (FJC). 175 lbs.—Winters (FJC). Heavyweight—Chantiles (FJC).

"Little Three" Championships

The first "Little Three"—Amherst, Wesleyan and Williams—wrestling championship tournament was held at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., March 5, 1938, and produced close and interesting competition. Williams won, with 30 points; Wesleyan was second, with 26 points, and Amherst third, with 23 points. Gold medals were awarded to individual class winners listed herewith:

118 lbs.—Jones (Williams). 126 lbs.—Handyside (Amherst). 135 lbs.—Minnick (Amherst). 145 lbs.—Esterbrook (Wesleyan). 155 lbs.—Potter (Williams). 165 lbs.—Petherbridge (Wesleyan). 175 lbs.—Elder (Williams). Unlimited—Tenny (Williams).

While no New England tournament was held last season the teams of the conference nevertheless participated in full dual meet schedules, Yale being the only one to remain undefeated. Many fine wrestlers were in evidence, especially among freshmen teams. It is hoped that the conference meet will be resumed this year.

Entries from West Virginia University, Michigan State, Ohio University, Kent State, Rochester Mechanics Institute, Waynesburg, Denison University, Mount Union, Findlay and Case contributed to the most interesting and successful of these annual tournaments.

Kent State University, Michigan State and West Virginia carried off major honors, with the climax being reached in the final bout of the 135-lb. class, when

Nationwide Notes on High School Wrestling

By B. E. Wiggins, National High School Federation Representative on N.C.A.A. Rules Committee.

CALIFORNIA—Again climate is a factor in sports excellence in the "Long State." Mr. Crosby (San Diego) truly attributes interest and success to the root factor—constant intramural activity. San Jose won the Northern California championship held at Oakland and Whittier the title for Southern California.

NEW JERSEY—The fine groups elsewhere reproduced evidence continual activity in New Jersey. The Lehigh interscholastics produced excellent performances. The "Old Master" (Sheridan) retains his vigor and leadership in the sport.

OKLAHOMA—Still the leader, all things considered. A pioneer (in this case, positively, Mr. Gallagher) usually plans well and carries on by example, plus the interest aroused in his followers. The success of the state's high schools—meaning sound technique and statewide activity—continues on its upward and onward way.

MARYLAND—A fine record for Gilman Country Day School! Let us hope for wider activity in the Free State this year.

WISCONSIN—With the sponsorship of the state association this year, and continued efforts by the university, wrestling in the high schools should advance rapidly. Coach Martin at Madison is largely responsible for much of the progress made in the state.

OREGON-WASHINGTON—Compliments are in order to this Northwest area of the nation. It is apparent that leadership, strong interest by all concerned, and solved transportation problems conduced, one and all, toward the great progress the mat sport has made in that section, where high school wrestling has established itself on a fine basis. Jones, Mulford and Bevan of the Hill Academy team of Portland deserve much credit for their interstate championships. Stay with it!

In 1933 six states conducted state sponsored tournaments. At this writing, seventeen states are on the record.

Although there is considerable activity in the form of duals and intramurals, no definite reports have been received from Michigan, Indiana, Georgia, Massachusetts, the Dakotas, Maine, Connecticut, Louisiana, North Carolina, Wyoming, and a few other areas. Lack of trained leadership appears to be the principal handicap, so far as the immediate development of the sport is concerned.

The various suggested changes in the rules received each year are thoroughly discussed by the entire Rules Committee. It is obvious that only such changes or additions to the present code conducive to the safety of young wrestlers, and at the same time the retention of the essential movements and maneuvers of this vigorous sport, shall be the final consideration. The respective merits of "point awards" for advantage, escape, etc., are still in the "trial and error" stage.

OHIO—After several years unceasing efforts on the part of those who believed that wrestling should be an integral part of the sports program, the first state tournament was held last season in Cleveland under the auspices of the City Physical Welfare Department and John Hay High School, the result of which was in doubt until the last two bouts, when Hay emerged as winner. Everyone connected with the meet should feel repaid for his interest and the work it entailed. The outstanding characteristics of the mat work displayed were the leg work and balance in evidence by the finalists. This year the state probably will be divided into districts (as for other sports) so that many young competitors from the more remote areas may enter.

MINNESOTA—A wholesome wrestling growth is in evidence. Physical sturdiness and life in the open should be favorable factors for increasing activity. The University of Minnesota has accomplished much in the past and will continue its lusty efforts in 1939.

NEW YORK—Reports each year from various areas indicate a "growing trend" in the form of district duals and tournaments. A few years ago it was difficult to ascertain the extent of this sport. Today, the interest and activity reported may be termed excellent. Keep on coming, New York!

ILLINOIS—Leadership and hard work are manifest in the continued success of statewide participation for the second successive year. The report of Mr. Kenney reveals growth of the sport and many other highlights. Good work, Proviso! In Chicago, Mr. Fritzlaff's report speaks for itself. A Tilden-Proviso dual should pack them in.

PENNSYLVANIA—Ten district meets and the first state championship tournament are recorded for 1938 in the Keystone State. From the printed word alone, it is evident that Cannonsburg is wrestling conscious—and very successful!

COLORADO—Out in this high country the sport continues to grow. No sign on the ceiling of the gym reading "Don't look up" is necessary.

IOWA—The Hawkeye State maintains its high ranking, as in past years. Close and widespread meets over this area attest progress. One need only read over the reports further on to be convinced.

KANSAS—Kansas State College has been and is a heavy contributor to high school wrestling. This is also true of other states. Fine work, St. Francis!

NEBRASKA—The Cornhuskers hold their high pace and place. There is "a something" in the big delta conducive to high grade wrestling. Leadership may be the answer.

In the event of failure to receive a request for photos and the season's record on or before May 10, 1939, please mail such data to the writer at 270 East State St., Columbus, Ohio.

JOHN HAY HIGH SCHOOL, CLEVELAND—OHIO STATE CHAMPIONS.

FIRST ANNUAL OHIO INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIP MEET

By Harold D. Kester, Coach of Wrestling, John Hay High School, Cleveland.

Interscholastic wrestling in the state of Ohio saw a marked increase in number of schools participating during the past season. A great many intersectional dual meets were held, with the attendance more than satisfactory.

Last season marked the beginning of interscholastic state championship competition in Ohio when the first state championships were held at John Hay High School, Cleveland, March 18 and 19, 1938. The entry list included twenty-one high schools from every part of the state, with 126 individual entries. Competition was close and officials and coaches expressed themselves as more than pleased at the quality of wrestling exhibited.

Due to the fact that the teams came from widely scattered sections of Ohio, it was impossible to do an efficient job of seeding, with the result that in a few instances two very good boys met in the first round. However, until we have more dual meets between teams from different districts, it will be almost impossible to make an even distribution of talent.

The officiating seemed to be far above the average, and in most instances decisions were accepted without a question. While rivalry was very strong between a number of the schools entered in the tournament, there was not a single instance of poor sportsmanship.

No one district predominated, although the Cleveland district had a great many more boys entered than any other section. When the semi-final rounds were reached it was found that the boys were scattered and all districts well represented. It was not until the second last match of the final round that the team championship was decided with Hay of Cleveland nosing out Rhodes of Cleveland by two points, to win the first Ohio state tournament. Akron East was third.

The tournament saw many individual stars, Joe Incorvaia of Hay probably turning in the best performance by pinning all of his opponents. However, there were several boys who by their outstanding performance challenged Incorvaia's supremacy.

Mr. Floyd Rowe, Director of Physical Welfare of the Cleveland Board of Education, was in charge of the tournament. The referees were Del Busha of Ohio University, James Bennett of Ohio State, and Joe Tabor of Kent State. Mr. B. E. Wiggins of Columbus, Ohio, representative of the National High School Federation, was Honorary Referee.

The schools entered in the tournament comprised Alliance, three schools from Columbus—Central, East and West; three from Akron—East, Garfield and North; Cuyahoga Falls, Lakewood, Parma, Shadyside and Wadsworth. Cleveland was represented by eight schools—Garfield Heights, James Ford Rhodes, John Hay, John Marshall, Lincoln, South, West and West Tech.

Individual winners: 95 lbs., Brdar (JH), won; Kesselring (AE), second. 105 lbs., Ingram (JFR), won; Jarzynski (GH), second. 115 lbs., Engler (W), won; Weakland (AE), second. 125 lbs., Hubbard (AE), won; Stamatis (WT), second. 135 lbs., Incorvaia (JH), won; Sullivan (GH), second. 145 lbs., Wolf (W), won; DiNapoli (AG), second. 155 lbs., Kakosky (JFR), won; Couvdos (AE), second. 165 lbs., Bujak (GH), won; Hibbard (CF), second. 185 lbs., Schleicher (JFR), won; Nall (AG), second. INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN THE AKRON (OHIO) AREA

By F. F. Ongley.

Akron Garfield won the city championship by defeating Akron East before a crowd of 850 spectators, the largest number ever to witness a scholastic wrestling match in this city. East had been undefeated for two years in the district prior to the Garfield match. However, East went on to win the district championship for the third successive year and placed third in the state meet, being pushed out of second place by the margin of one point by Cleveland John Rhoades. All in all, the season was very successful, as attendance was good and enthusiasm ran high.

Those of us who are in the Akron area feel that we have made some worthwhile changes for 1939. First of all, we have formed a more closely united league, each team meeting every other team on a home-and-home basis, with the championship being decided on a percentage basis. In case of a tie the two leading teams are to meet in a third match on a neutral mat. Furthermore, at the close of the dual meet season an individual championship tournament will be held with two points in view: first, to give the boys of the district some actual tournament experience; second, to select first and second place winners for the state meet, so as to cut down the number of entries and therefore improve the wrestling in the meet.

Akron East's record for 1939 shows eight wins and two losses, with a total of 236½ points to opponents' 126½—with a victory over Cleveland John Hay, state champions for 1939. The record:

21—John Hay 19	10½—West Tech 21½	36½—Akron South 6½
34—Wadsworth 8	34½—Alliance 10½	14—Akron Garfield 17
18½—Cuyahoga Falls 10½	26½—Akron North 10½	19—Cuyahoga Falls 12

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN THE CLEVELAND (OHIO) DISTRICT

Undefeated champions of the district for the year was the proud honor of Garfield Heights High School, which turned in a total of 274 points to 47 for opponents in ten dual meets, and although relatively a small school (only about 1,200 pupils in junior and senior high) was able to vanquish such teams as John Hay, Cleveland city champions of the previous year, and West Tech, hitherto undefeated city champions last season. The record:

Garfield 17, Alumni 9; 34, Lincoln 7; 41, Parma 0; 19, South 7; 30, Shore 2; 27, John Hay 5; 28, Lakewood 1; 23, University 8; 38, Euclid 0; 17, West Tech 9. Not an opponent was able to score a total of ten points.

WRESTLING IN THE CHICAGO PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOLS

By A. E. Fritzlauff, Director Physical Education.

Wrestling among the member schools of the Chicago Public High Schools Athletic Association is divided into a team championship, decided by a series of dual meets, and individual championships, decided by an elimination tournament. The team championship was won by Tilden High School with nine victories and no defeats. This makes Tilden's ninth championship in the fourteen years of wrestling competition.

HIGH SCHOOL WRESTLING IN ILLINOIS

By H. D. Kenney, University of Illinois.

The first statewide wrestling tournament sponsored by the state high school athletic association was held in the spring of 1937 at University of Illinois, Urbana. In this first state tournament twenty schools were represented with 102 contestants. Last season thirty-two schools entered men and the number of entries was 193. Due to weather conditions on the weekend of the tournament, however, only 155 contestants actually weighed in for competition. In many respects it was fortunate that all those entered did not arrive, since the tournament was really too large for a two-day affair.

Plans are being made to hold four sectional tournaments this year, with only first and second place winners in each weight division qualifying for the finals to be held one week later. In this way each tournament will be small enough to be easily handled and it also will eliminate the possibility of overworking the contestants.

The interest in interscholastic wrestling has been growing rapidly since the state association has sponsored a state championship meet. At present there are approximately forty schools holding dual meets and from all indications there may be as high as fifty teams represented in this season's tournament. The degree of skill shown by the various teams is rapidly increasing. Results of the 1938 state championship tournament (first seven teams) were as follows:

Team points—Proviso 26, Champaign 24, Tilden 18, Lewistown 16, Bowen 14, Calumet 13, Granite City 12. Individual winners: 95 lbs., Moyer (Ch), won; Fricker (GCity), second; Swanson (B), third. 105 lbs., Sanford (Ch), won; Bishop (P), second; Stanley (T), third. 115 lbs., Bearce (L), won; Lasser (T), second; McDaniels (Ch), third. 125 lbs., Anthonisen (B), won; Skoronski (T), second; Stasi (P), third. 135 lbs., Bayer (GCity), won; Wilson (L), second; Aloia (B), third. 145 lbs., Lambros (Cal), won; Lagiola (Crane), second; Ratcliff (L), third. 155 lbs., Seabrook (P), won; Wahle (A), second; Swanke (Cal), third. 165 lbs., Marsh (Cal), won; Mustain (P), second; Butkins (T), third. 185 lbs., Remick (P), won; Wilson (Ch), second; Fisher (T), third.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN WISCONSIN

By G. A. Martin, University of Wisconsin.

Wrestling in Wisconsin high schools made rapid progress during the past school year. We are really going ahead here.

The Wisconsin Interscholastic A.A. sponsored a series of clinics during September and October and November of 1937, holding the clinics in various cities in the state. Demonstrations and exhibitions were given and the high schools were made wrestling conscious. As a result many high schools have taken up wrestling, and about forty schools initiated the sport in either an interscholastic or intramural way. The schools which have wrestled before were much improved.

It is proposed to hold the first Wisconsin state high school tournament this winter. The high school association is behind the sport, and as soon as the schools demonstrate that they are ready to support a state tournament the association will sponsor the meet.

Competition was keen and five of the leading schools were closely grouped when the final points were added, Cresco again capturing the title after a stiff battle with Osage, New Hampton, East Waterloo and Dubuque. Osage, with only three years' experience, produced a strong dual meet team. New Hampton was also represented by its usual well balanced team. East Waterloo, West Waterloo, Dubuque, Davenport, Clinton, Lamont, Tripoli and Oelwein also wrestled complete schedules.

Team scores—Cresco 33, New Hampton 21, Osage 21, East Waterloo 17, Dubuque 14, Tripoli 8, I.S.B. 5. Lamont and Oelwein did not score.

HIGH SCHOOL WRESTLING IN MINNESOTA

By D. C. Bartelma, University of Minnesota.

Wrestling is developing rapidly in Minnesota. Several schools introduced wrestling last season and many others are expecting to add it to their programs in the near future. At least ten schools conducted dual meet schedules and sixteen schools entered the second annual state high school tournament held at the University of Minnesota. This is almost a one hundred per cent increase over the competition of the preceding season. A meet for metropolitan schools was conducted in Minneapolis and Duluth Y.M.C.A. held a Head of the Lakes meet for high school wrestlers of the northern section of the state.

Marshall High School of Minneapolis won the team state championship, with Osakis High a close runner-up. Individual place winners were: 85 lbs. Brakke (Milroy); 95 lbs. Rooney (Robbinsdale); 105 lbs. VanGordon (Marshall); 115 lbs. Swartz (Osakis); 125 lbs. Zaychek (Marshall); 135 lbs. Cecere (Marshall); 145 lbs. DeLuc (Marshall); 155 lbs. Johnson (Osakis); 165 lbs. INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN KANSAS

By B. R. Patterson, Kansas State College, Manhattan.

The growth of high school wrestling in Kansas is steady and satisfactory, and is on the upgrade in quality of wrestling, coaching, competition, and number of schools participating.

At the annual state meet, held at Kansas State College, injuries were few, if any; in fact, I do not remember one that was serious. Only two defaults were due to injury. With twelve schools competing this was a good showing. None of the injuries was serious. At the end of the high school meet a dual meet was staged with Iowa University, and the high schools were the guests of the athletic department.

Team scores: St. Francis 32, Wichita East 22, Oberlin 18, Hutchinson 8, Douglass 8, Colby 8, Wichita North 7, Newton 7, Atwood 5, Hoxie 3, Goodland 2, Manhattan 0. Individual winners: 95 lbs. INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN NEBRASKA

By R. L. Carns.

The Nebraska state meet was a three-way battle in which Omaha Central, South and Tech figured, with the final result in doubt until the last consolation match had been decided. All the contesting schools managed to score at least one point, with four out of six schools sharing individual championships. All contestants appreciated working on the large 30-foot mat that the university provided.

Team scores: Omaha Tech 34, Omaha South 28, Omaha Central 27, Omaha North 17, Minden 8, Rokeby 1. Individual championships: 85 lbs., Reynolds (T); 95 lbs., Evans (C); 105 lbs., Riplog (T); 115 lbs., Young (C); 125 lbs., Circo (T); 135 lbs., Fluhr (T); 145 lbs., Thomas (N); 155 lbs., Alexander (S); 165 lbs., Newquist (S); heavyweight, Harder (S).

It was the second state championship for Harder and the third for Riplog.

High school wrestling in Omaha and Council Bluffs maintained a high grade of excellence last season. There were not quite so many dual meets as in past years, since the two Council Bluffs schools and Creighton Prep chose to compete in a single round robin, the other schools scheduling a double round robin. There were no serious injuries in connection with any of the high school wrestling meets in the vicinity. The individual championship meet was not held because of the shortened school year and consequent rush in activities. South High again won the championship with a perfect record of nine victories, although several of the dual meets were close contests. This gives South and Tech each one win toward the Baburek Trophy. Team standing: South 9, Abraham Lincoln 4, Thomas Jefferson 3, Tech 4, Central 4, North 1, Creighton Prep 0.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN OKLAHOMA

By L. K. Anderson, Oklahoma City, and H. B. Anderson, Ponca City.

Wrestling has been spreading continuously in Oklahoma since its inauguration by Coach E. C. Gallagher of Oklahoma A. & M. several years ago, where the annual scholastic meet was held each year until 1933. The latter tournament was so large that the Oklahoma High School Athletic Association took charge and divided the state into four districts. An elimination tournament was held in each to qualify eight wrestlers in each weight for the official state championship tournament. This plan was followed in 1934-35-36-37.

District tournaments were too large in 1937, so the state was re-divided into five districts, with three wrestlers qualifying from each district in each weight.

The new plan met with outstanding success and enthusiasm. Of seventy-eight schools that participated in wrestling sixty-eight sent teams to the district tournaments, while thirty-five schools succeeded in qualifying from one to nine wrestlers for the final state championship meet.

Team champions in the five districts were: Geary, Pauls Valley, Ponca City, Tulsa Central, and Elk City.

At the championship meet, held at Southwestern Teachers College, in Weatherford, March 11 and 12, 1938, the leading team scores were: Tulsa Central 20, Ponca City 17, Geary 12, Elk City 10, Weatherford 9, Blackwell 7, Guthrie 6, Sulphur 6. Henslee, Kitt and Shelton were repeating champions in their respective events.

Individual state champions: 95 lbs., McDonal (TCU), won; Richardson (Geary), second; Coleman (B), third. 105 lbs., Henslee (EC), won; Lundy (PC), second; Sullivan (Bristow), third. 115 lbs., Kitt (TCU), won; Palmer (Stillwater), second; Marks (PC), third. 125 lbs., Jacobson (CH), won; Whitehurst (Ardmore), second; Crothers (Geary), third. 135 lbs., Johnson (TCU), won; Sodowsky (B), second; Grant (Cushing), third. 145 lbs., Maxwell (TCU), won; Keas (EC), second; St. Johns (Tulsa Clinton), third. 155 lbs., Gibbs (Guthrie), won; Hambrick (W), second; Gregg (Sand Springs), third. 165 lbs., Shelton (PC), won; Harrold (TCU), second; Bolding (Hobart), third. 185 lbs., Arms (S), won; McClanahan (W), second; Leonard (Geary), third.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN COLORADO

By John W. Hancock, Greeley State College.

Last season marked a decided improvement in wrestling in Colorado. Many schools have introduced the sport, and others are experimenting with it, but so far competition is confined to Northern Colorado and on the Western slope of the state. There has been a steady increase in the number of schools represented at the state meet, held annually at Greeley State College, and in the number of contestants.

In the third annual state high school tournament, held as usual at Greeley State College, Grand Junction High won with 30 points; North Denver was runner-up, with 22 points, closely followed by Manual High of Denver, with 22. Complete team point results were as follows:

Grand Junction 30, North Denver 22, Denver Manual 20, Fort Morgan 16, East Denver 14, South Denver 13, Greeley High 10, Denver West 6, Montrose 6, Fort Collins 5, Loveland, Greeley College High, Yuma, Olathe, Golden, Sterling and Gilcrest also competed. Individual champions: 95 lbs., Hayashi (GJ); 105 lbs., Helton (SD); 125 lbs., Gardner (ED); 135 lbs., Hancy (ND); 145 lbs., Snodgrass (G); 155 lbs., Schaurman (FM); 165 lbs., Carroll (ND); 185 lbs., Mann (FM).

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN WASHINGTON

By William W. Foster, Camas (Wash.) High School.

Hill Military Academy of Portland, Oregon, won the Pacific Northwest championship tournament of 1938 in one of the most exciting competitions ever held in the Northwest. The result was not decided until the final bout of the tournament, and the latter a very close referee's decision.

Individual champions: 95 lbs., Wayne Snider (Salem); 105 lbs., Bill Jones (Oregon School for Blind); 115 lbs., Leo Kawasaki (Fife); 125 lbs., Frank Pete (Lincoln High, Tacoma); 135 lbs., Emmett Scott (Camas); 145 lbs., Alvin Jones (Hill M.A.); 155 lbs., Omar Rhodes (Camas); 165 lbs., James Mulford (Hill M.A.); 185 lbs., Bill Beven (Hill M.A.).

The tournament was very closely contested throughout, with twelve of the original fifteen schools competing in the semi-finals, while five of the schools were still represented in four different weight groups.

Thanks to the change in rules, which placed the greater emphasis on falls or near-falls as a determining factor in the results of matches, the spectators voiced loud praise of the change in type of wrestling.

INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONS OF OREGON.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN OREGON

By Vernon Gilmore, Salem High School.

The seventh annual Oregon High School A.A. tournament was held at Salem High School, March 4 and 5, 1938. There was an increase in the number of teams entered, bringing the total to fourteen. One hundred and thirty-three boys were entered in the first round, about forty more than in the previous year. As an example of the increase in wrestling interest, seven schools won titles in various weights, which shows that the technique of wrestling is becoming better uniformly.

Hill Military Academy of Portland won the championship. Tillamook placed second and Salem and Corvallis tied for third. Hill's victory broke the monopoly which Benson of Portland and Salem had enjoyed in the past. Benson, however, did not compete last season, due to a controversy between the Portland schools and the Oregon H.S.A.A. It was Hill's second year in the tournament and they had a fine squad, coached by Noel Franklin.

Individual winners: 95 lbs., Wayne Snider (Salem); 105 lbs., Louis Radford (Sandy); 115 lbs., Ted Webb (Corvallis); 125 lbs., Gerald McCarthy (Oregon City); 135 lbs., Don Buckley (Newberg); 145 lbs., Alvin Jones (Hill); 155 lbs., Ed Miles (Canby); 165 lbs., James Mulford (Hill); 185 lbs., Bill Beven (Hill); heavyweight, Douglas Vagt (Tillamook).

Most of the bouts during the tournament were won on falls, and it so happened that the boys meeting in the finals were so evenly matched that decisions were rendered in every case in the finals. This was done on the point basis and proved very popular as the crowd understood the points, and the decisions were just.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

By Frank M. Crosby, San Diego High School.

The annual interscholastic wrestling tournament in Southern California has been sponsored by the California Interscholastic Federation for three consecutive years, which puts wrestling on a high plane with the many other sports from which boys in this state benefit. The major need of the sport in the state at present, however, is adequate leadership in the many splendid high schools.

The thirteenth annual interscholastic tournament was held at Inglewood High School, May 14, 1938, under the personal supervision of Wrestling Commissioner Roy H. Moore. The outstanding features of the competition were the aggressive type of wrestling as the result of the new method of picking winners and the more even distribution of first place medals among the competing schools than has been the case for many years. Whittier finished in first place, scoring 31 points; San Diego was a close second with 30, El Monte had 18, Inglewood 15, and Sherman Institute 12, with Luezing, Fullerton and Santa Ana trailing behind the leaders.

Individual winners: 95 lbs., Morales (EIM), won; Okine (W), second. 105 lbs., Venegas (I), won; M.Padia (W), second. 115 lbs., Madamba (SD), won; Hernandez (W), second. 125 lbs., J.Padia (W), won; Foster (I), second. 135 lbs., Coppedge (SD), won; Lacey (W), second. 145 lbs., LaShell (W), won; Ferris (S), second. 155 lbs., Carro (S), won; Martin (SD), second. 165 lbs., Workman (EIM), won; Co-capt. Barnes (SD), second. 185 lbs., Bollin (SD), won; Ames (EIM), second.

J. Padia of Whittier was the only competitor to retain a championship from 1937. He won three titles and one second place in four years of competition. Barnes of San Diego won two titles and a second in three years of competition.

No organized league exists for dual meet competition for any of these schools, but many free lance dual meets are arranged and held each year. Sherman Institute and San Diego hold such a meet each year with twenty to thirty matches instead of the conventional nine. Sherman Institute competed in the Southern Pacific A.A.U. tournament, and after many weeks with the stiffest competition in the state finished in a tie for fifth place with U.C.L.A.

But the really important phase of wrestling activity in the high schools of Southern California is in intramural competition. Especially is this true at Whittier and San Diego, where the intramural programs are reaching more and more boys each year. At San Diego last season ninety-four boys were divided into eighteen classes for round robin competition in each class. It took three months to complete the tournament after school on one small mat. But in many respects it was the outstanding event on the physical education and athletic program at the school. The emphasis is on the mass program with just enough inter-school competition to keep interest high.

The California Interscholastic Federation does not permit athletic competition between the northern and southern parts of the state in any sports except track and field. And a special permit has to be secured before a California high school can compete in any sport with a school outside the state. The object is to eliminate expensive trips and overemphasis on competition. So we have to work out our own destinies in each section.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN NORTHERN NEW YORK

By John C. Cole, Coach Watertown High School.

Wrestling plays an important part in Northern New York athletics and is rapidly being introduced into those schools which have not as yet included it among their sports. In order to test the ability of wrestlers from all parts of the state an invitation interscholastic tournament is sponsored annually by St. Lawrence University, Canton, N.Y. In this meet the most competent from Southern New York and the Long Island district may compete with those chosen by elimination contests from Central and Northern New York.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING ON LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK

Compiled by Sprig Gardner, Coach Mepham High School, Bellmore, N.Y.

High school wrestling made rapid advancement on Long Island during the past year, in both participation and spectator interest. On December 3 a wrestling forum was conducted at Mepham High School under the able direction of Coach William Sheridan of Lehigh University, Coach James Reed of Princeton and John Engle. More than 1200 parents and wrestlers from all parts of the Island were in attendance and many left with a changed attitude toward the sport.

Amityville and Mepham had the outstanding records in dual competition, remaining undefeated throughout the season. The meet between the two schools resulted in a 15-15 tie.

Three tournaments were conducted, the Mepham invitation, to which all Long Island High Schools were invited; the South Shore, restricted to members of the South Shore League, and the Suffolk interscholastics, limited to Suffolk County high schools. Results were as follows:

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

By H. A. Fischer, Beaver, Pa.

The third annual wrestling championships of the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League were held at Waynesburg College, March 11 and 12, 1938. One hundred fifty entries representing twenty-three schools competed in the two-day affair. The wrestling committee echoes the praise of the high school coaches and contestants due the Waynesburg college authorities for their splendid organization and efficiency in sponsoring this meet. From all standpoints it was the most successful championship event ever conducted by the league.

Canonsburg, coached by R. J. O'Connell, after an enviable season of dual meets, once more successfully defended its title. The point distribution was much greater than it had been in previous tournaments and only in the final tally was the winner determined. The year also saw the inauguration of Pennsylvania state high school championships. The W.P.I.A.L., comprising District 7 of the Pennsylvania I.A.A., was permitted to enter the ten district champions in the state meet, which was held at Penn State College, March 18 and 19, 1938. Custer, Metzler and Ahwesh, who won in their respective classes in the W.P.I.A.L. tournament, attained additional honors by winning their events in the state championships. While district and team championships were not recognized in the state meet, it seemed an indication to the committee that wrestling in the W.P.I.A.L. compares favorably with the progress being made in the balance of the state.

Team point scoring in the W.P.I.A.L. championships was as follows: Canonsburg 33, Greensburg 27, Trafford 29, Dormont 11, Charnichs 8, Norwin 6, Elizabeth 6, Ramsey 4, Waynesburg 2, Stowe 2, Sewickley Township 2, West Newton 1. Individual champions: 85 lbs., DeMarino (G); 95 lbs., Custer (C); 105 lbs., Phillips (D); 115 lbs., Puchany (C); 125 lbs., Pappert (D); 135 lbs., Metzler (G); 145 lbs., Valmassoni (C); 155 lbs., Paul (C); 165 lbs., Bitler (G); heavy-weight, Ahwesh (C).

INTERSCHOLASTIC WRESTLING IN WEST VIRGINIA

By Frank M. Lough, Coach Weston High School.

Larger crowds attended all wrestling meets in West Virginia during the season of 1938 than ever before. At Harrisville the sport eclipsed both basketball and football in popular interest. Harrisville won the state championship, with East Fairmont second.

The new rules were well received, especially when referees broke completely with the oldtime advantage method of scoring. An exhibition meet was wrestled by Parkersburg and Harrisville at the Pennsboro sectional basketball tournament, which interested several schools in taking up the sport. Sportsmanship reached a new high, with four teams, Morgantown, East Fairmont, Parkersburg and Weston, ending in a tie on a ballot to determine the team showing the best sportsmanship during the season.

Outstanding men were: 95 lbs., Conrad, Harrisville; 105 lbs., Goff, Harrisville; 115 lbs., Bartholow, East Fairmont; 125 lbs., Betonte, East Fairmont, and Hall, Weston; 135 lbs., Vinson and Maston, Harrisville; 145 lbs., Manzo, Parkersburg; 155 lbs., Stalnaker, Weston, and Williams, Parkersburg; 165 lbs., Boone, Parkersburg; 185 lbs., Spordone, Parkersburg.

American Amateur Wrestling Coaches Association

BY W. AUSTIN BISHOP, SECRETARY-TREASURER.

215 Hutchinson Gymnasium, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

Membership in the American Amateur Wrestling Coaches Association is open to all persons interested in teaching, coaching, or directing amateur wrestling activities in schools, colleges, athletic clubs, Y.M.C.A.'s and Y.M.H.A.'s. Yearly membership dues are one dollar, and may be forwarded to the office of the Secretary. The Coaches' News Bulletins, for which there is an increasing demand, are available only to members of the Association, to whom they are sent periodically free of charge.

As an institution for direct and concerted action in the interest of the sport of wrestling and its wholesome development, the Association has made many valuable contributions. Much important work remains to be done, however, and it is the hope of the Association that the athletic director and coach of every institution sponsoring wrestling activities may soon be affiliated with it. Old members are urged to invite their professional colleagues to membership.

The Secretary is eager to improve the quality of the Coaches' News Bulletin and will welcome suggestions from members. Meanwhile every member is asked to cooperate by prompt compliance with the following requests:

- (1) Place the name of the Secretary on the mailing list of your school or college paper. News items concerning wrestling will be of interest to others.
- (2) Prepare articles for publication in the News Bulletin. Select your own topic or choose one of the following subjects:

How to further improve amateur wrestling rules.
 How to improve officiating.
 Methods and materials in teaching wrestling.
 Training and conditioning methods.
 Ways of combating the harmful influences of professional wrestling.
 How to stimulate interest in amateur wrestling.
 How to minimize unnecessary hazards in wrestling.
 Suggestions for the improvement and standardization of wrestling terminology.

The 1938 annual meeting of the Association was held in conjunction with the National Collegiate Championship meet at Pennsylvania State College Saturday, March 26, 1938, Charles Speidel presiding. Possible rules improvements were discussed at length, both in the general session and in the joint meeting with the Rules Committee which followed.

A committee was appointed to select the outstanding wrestler of the 1938 N.C.A.A. meet. The trophy annually provided by the Coaches Association was subsequently presented to Joe McDaniels of Oklahoma A.&M. College, who successfully defended the 118-lb. title.

A pleasant social gathering of the visiting coaches and officials was held Friday evening at the State College Country Club, the event having been planned by President Speidel and Dr. Schott, Director of Athletics at Pennsylvania State College.

The following officers were elected and duly installed for the year 1938-39: B. R. Patterson, Kansas State College, Manhattan, President; James Reed, Princeton University, Vice-President; W. Austin Bishop, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Secretary-Treasurer.
