22nd Annual NCAA Tournament

By B. R. PATTERSON

Editor, Official NCAA Wrestling Guide

The 22nd annual Wrestling Championships of the National Collegiate Athletic Association were held at Colorado A&M College, Fort Collins, Colo., March 28 and 29, 1952.

University of Oklahoma's Sooners came out on top again. More than 3,000 fans watched the Sooners win their second NCAA mat title in a row by one point, 22-21, over Iowa Teachers. Oklahoma A&M finished a close third with 20 points. Thus the three top-ranked schools staged a photo finish, one of the closest in tournament history.

Coach Porter Robertson credited the great tutoring ability of his state high school coaches with having much to do with the successes of the Sooners and Oklahoma Aggies in the sport of wrestling.

Oklahoma boasted two individual champions, 123-pound Bill Borders and 147-pound Tommy Evans, who was voted the outstanding wrestler of the tournament. Evans made up for last year when he won his first three matches impressively by falls only to lose out in the finals to Oklahoma A&M's George Layman, who defended his 137-pound crown.

At its annual meeting, the National Wrestling Coaches' and Officials' Association elected Claude Sharer of Case Tech president. He succeeds Dave Bartelma of Minnesota. Raymond E. Sparks, Springfield, was elected vice-president, Joseph R. Scalzo, secretary-treasurer, and H. D. Kester, West High School, Cleveland, membership chairman.

The Olympics

In the 1952 Olympic Free Style Wrestling Tournament at Helsinki, Finland, July 20-23, an excellent showing was made by the American team, composed of men who secured their wrestling knowledge from high school and college coaches. The boys were well coached and well conditioned by United States Olympic Coach Raymond Swartz. The morale of the team was high and cooperation tops, as the alternates scouted and helped the first place men in every way possible. Henry Wittenberg was elected team captain, and his previous experience in the 1948 Olympic Games was very helpful.

COLLEGIATE REVIEWS

Eastern Intercollegiate Tournament

By GEORGE L. SHIEBLER, Eastern College Athletic Conference

Penn State successfully retained its championship laurels in the 48th Annual Tournament of the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association held on March 14 and 15 at Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pa. The Nittany Lions under the tutelage of Coach Charles Speidel tallied 33 points, to outscore 15 rival squads. Syracuse, 1950 champion, was the runner-up team with 19 points and Rutgers scored a major surprise among Eastern mat followers by outscoring Lehigh to gain third-ranking honors. The Scarlet scored 16 points to 15 for the hosts.

Three individual titles were gained by Penn State's representatives. The other five championships were distributed among Army, Lehigh, Princeton, Rutgers and Syracuse.

The trio of Penn State triumphs came in the 123-pound class where Robert Homan defeated Syracuse's Bob Gerbino, on Dick Lemyre's 130-pound division win over Kenneth Faust of Lehigh, and with Joseph Lemyre's stellar victory over Ray Vohden of Rutgers in the 167-pound class.

George Feuerbach of Lehigh who was voted "the outstanding performer" in the star-studded event defeated Jerry Maurey of Penn State in the 137-pound class to retain his crown. Ed Rooney, Syracuse freshman, bowed to the defending champion, Cornell's Frank Bettucci in the 147-pound division. Emil Perona of Rutgers held onto his title in the 157-pound division and Brad Glass of Princeton kept his heavyweight title with a decision over Dick Beyer of Syracuse.

The Lemyres are brothers and it was the first time since 1908 that such a combination earned championships in the same tournament.

The 1953 championships are scheduled for March 13 and 14 at Princeton University, Princeton, N.J.

New England Intercollegiate Tournament

By CHARLES TIPTON, Tournament Manager

For the second consecutive year the Springfield College wrestling team, coached by Raymond E. Sparks, won the New England IWA championships held at Springfield, Mass., March 7 and 8.

Two champions defended their titles. William Callaghan of Williams in the 157-pound class and Sam Coursen of Springfield in the 123-pound division repeated. It was the third title won by Callaghan and Coursen's second. Coursen won the Coaches Trophy as the outstanding wrestler.

The Springfield Freshman team also captured its second successive crown with none of its team members having ever wrestled before.

Southeastern Tournament

By J. J. MILLER, Coach, Emory University

The Southeastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association was formed at the University of Chattanooga, March 3, 1951. It was the purpose of this group to work together in developing amateur wrestling in the South and to incorporate the schools participating in this sport. Officers elected were A. W. Umbach, Auburn, secretary-treasurer, and Jack Griffith, Georgia Tech, vice-president.

The first tournament was held at Emory University, February 29 and March 1, 1952. The following schools participated: Auburn, Emory, Vanderbilt, Middle Tennessee State, Chattanooga, Maryville and Georgia Tech.

The 1953 tournament will be held at Vanderbilt University. John Davis of Maryville College was elected President of the SIWA for the coming year.

Mason-Dixon Conference Tournament

By CARL REES, Johns Hopkins University

The ninth annual Mason-Dixon Wrestling Championships were held at Johns Hopkins University on February 27 and 28. Seven schools sent 48 wrestlers to the meet.

Baltimore won the team championship with four individual titles and one runner-up. Defending champion Gallaudet finished in third place behind Loyola.

Only three individual champions repeated: Al Doory of Baltimore in the 147-pound class, Jack Cyphers of Loyola in the 157-pound division, and Sid Goldin of Baltimore in the heavyweight class. Bud Potter regained the 137-pound crown he had captured in 1950 after being out of school last year.

Four-I Tournament

By SKIP HEINTZELMAN, Editor, Case News Service

On March 14 and 15 Case Institute of Technology played host to the 15th annual Four-I tournament. This meet is designed to give the top wrestlers from the smaller colleges in the Mid-west a chance to get accustomed to top tournament wrestling before the NCAA tournament.

Director Claude B. Sharer said, "This was the smallest tournament we have had in a good while, but it was without a doubt the best tournament in the history of the Four-I." This was evidenced by the finals. In this year's 10 championship matches, 4 of the titles had to be decided by the referee and the judges.

There were 96 grapplers from 23 colleges and universities competing in 108 matches. Although the tournament is on an individual basis as the name Four-I (International, Invitational, Intercollegiate, Individual) indicates, team points are compiled. Waynesburg College amassed 38 points to walk off with the unofficial team championship.

Big Ten Conference Tournament

By BUEL R. PATTERSON, Coach, University of Illinois

University of Illinois captured its fifth Western Conference wrestling title in 1952 with excellent team balance. Despite the fact that the Illini won only one individual championship, the team scored four second places and totaled 28 points, seven more than runner-up Michigan. Michigan State was third with 19 points.

So even was competition for titles in the 10 Olympic weight classes that eight schools shared in individual championships. Don Ryan of Wisconsin, who won the 157-pound class for the third consecutive year, was selected as outstanding wrestler of the tournament by a poll of Conference coaches.

University of Michigan conducted the 1952 classic in excellent fashion and officiating was ably handled by Christopher Traicoff, Indiana, Leland Merrill, Michigan State, and H. E. Kenney, Illinois.

North West AAU Tournament

By DON INGELS

Mankato State Teachers College completely dominated the field of competitors in the North West AAU Tournament, held at the University of Minnesota Farm School Gymnasium in St. Paul, as they placed four firsts, one second, one third, and one fourth for a total of 42 points.

Starring for individual championships were Manuel Macias, 115 pounds, from Mankato, and Ken Prihoda, 165 pounds, also from Mankato, as they pinned all their competitors to gain the championship medal.

Second place went to South Dakota State College which garnered two first and one fourth place medals with a total of 20 points. Third place laurels went to the Minneapolis Olympians with first, second and third place awards, and a total of 17 points. St. Cloud State Teachers College, the defending champions, ended in fourth place, with 16 points. The Mankato team was second place winner last year, its first year of wrestling.

Big Seven Conference Tournament

By HUGO OTOPALIK

Iowa State College was the site of the 1952 Big Seven Conference team and individual wrestling championships on March 7 and 8.

Oklahoma, with a veteran and well balanced team, took the team honors along with a majority of the individual first places. The calibre of wrestling in the conference is attested to by the fact that Oklahoma also annexed the NCAA title this year and placed wrestlers on the U.S. Olympic team. Port Robertson has done a wonderful job in building up the sport in his school and he will be even tougher to compete against in 1953.

The quality of wrestling was by far the best in years, which is a tribute to the high school coaches of this section of the country.

Referees Dale Brand, Cornell College, and Orville Orr, Iowa State Teachers College, officiated all the contests and did a wonderful job. There were no protests and no injuries.

Mountain States Conference Tournament

By J. F. WAGNER, Coach, Colorado A&M

For the third consecutive year wrestling team standings in the Mountain States Conference presented the same pattern, with Wyoming, Colorado A&M and Denver finishing on top in that order.

The high-riding Cowboys, tournament hosts, wrapped up the title with an impressive 43-point total, gaining four individual championships, two seconds and a pair of third places. The Aggies, a close second with 38 points, produced three individual champions, three second places and one third place winner. Denver's

Pioneers, trailing in third place with 17 points, picked up the other individual championship, in addition to one second, one third and three fourth places.

New Mexico University, a new conference member this year, was represented by four men and made a good showing in its first appearance.

Rocky Mountain Conference Tournament

By JOHN HANCOCK, Coach, Colorado State College

The Rocky Mountain Conference Wrestling Tournament was held at Western State College, Gunnison, Colorado, on March 7 and 8, with five teams competing. Colorado State won the championship by placing a contestant in the finals in each weight, and winning five individual titles. Colorado School of Mines finished second with a well balanced team and Montana State was third, followed by Western State and Idaho State.

All weights were tightly contested. Don Govoni and Harold Rusk won their third consecutive Conference Championships for Colorado State.

Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Tournament

By F. SHELDON HARDEN, Coach, California State Polytechnic College

The 1952 Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Championship Tournament, held at California State Polytechnic College, March 7 and 8, was contested on a high level before an enthusiastic crowd at each session. Through the efforts of the coaches and directors of the PCIWA this was one of our most successful tournaments.

Washington State again was co-champion of the Pacific Coast, this time with San Jose State; each had 21 points. Close behind were Oregon State with 18 points, and California State Poly with 15 points.

Three men retained and regained their titles. They were Frank Waxham, 157-pounder, San Jose State, Bill Mosby, 167-pounder, Oregon State, and Bently Lyon, 177-pounder, California, who was voted the outstanding wrestler in the PCI. He won the NCAA 177-pound title for 1952.

With service teams now competing in wrestling on the Pacific Coast, members of the PCIWA are afforded the best competition in the country.

Two new members, Stanford and Santa Clara, were admitted to the PCIWA this year.

Canadian Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament

By DONALD R. CONWAY, Coach, University of Western Ontario

The 1952 Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union Wrestling Championships, held at the University of Toronto on February 22 and 23, 1952, provided conclusive evidence of the advancement of wrestling in Canadian Universities.

The five Senior and three Intermediate entries, totaling seventy-two competitors, displayed a caliber of wrestling never before seen in this country, and the championship team was not determined until the second last bout of the tournament.

The University of Western Ontario, pre-tournament darkhorse, ended up on top with a total of 34 points compared to runner up University of Toronto with 31 points. There were only 11 points separating the five Senior teams in the closely contested event, with overall team strength giving Western the Edge.

The individual titles were equally divided with two going to each team except defending champions McGill University. Bill Gray, 157 pounds, and Bob Steckle, heavyweight, both from the Ontario Agricultural College, and Mark Hatt, McGill's 177-pound captain, successfully repeated their 1951 efforts; while Bob McLeod, McGill 123-pound 1951 champion, was divested of his crown by Western's John Driesman.

The University of Toronto copped the Intermediate crown for the second straight year, coming up with six individual champions and a total of 50 points.

California

By SAM DELLA MAGGIORE, Coach, San Jose High School

Interscholastic wrestling is still growing in Northern California, with twenty-six high schools participating in the sport this year. The increase in number of competitors makes it impossible for all schools to engage in a novice and junior meet. As a result, the following leagues are conducting their own tournaments: Santa Clara Valley, Peninsula Athletic League, Coast Counties, San Joaquin Valley and the Bay Region.

The 1952 Northern California High School Wrestling Tournament was held at Hayward High School on February 2. Sixty-six contestants from fifteen schools grappled for the medals which were awarded to first and second place winners.

Fremont High School came out on top in team standings with a total of 31 points, gaining three individual championships and three seconds. In second spot with 25 points was Hayward High, on the strength of four individual championships, while San Jose captured third honors with sixteen points, winning two individual championships and one second place medal.

Georgia

By JOHNNY J. MILLER, Coach, Emory University

The first interscholastic wrestling tournament ever held in the state of Georgia was conducted at Emory University on March 7 and 8, 1952. Several dual meets were held on an informal basis during the season as wrestling was initiated through the aid of the Emory University Athletic Department at the following Georgia High Schools: Georgia Military Academy; Druid Hills High School of Dekalb County; Northside High of Atlanta; Sylvan High of Atlanta; Atlanta Athletic Club; and Calhoun High of Calhoun, Georgia.

The first Georgia Interscholastic Wrestling Tournament had 54 entries from the above mentioned schools. The meet was run off in three sessions in the new Emory University Field House with capacity crowds attending all sessions. First place was taken by Georgia Military Academy; second was taken by Druid Hills High; and Northside High of Atlanta was third. A team trophy and medals were given the winners.

A clinic is to be sponsored by Emory for the schools interested in wrestling throughout the state and plans are being made for dual meets for the coming year by the various schools in the area.

Illinois

Chicago's Tilden Tech. High School won the state high school wrestling title back in 1946 by squeezing out Urbana and Proviso. Bob Hicks was coaching the Tilden grapplers then, and six years and several second and third places later, Hicks was still on hand to guide his wrestlers to another state title. This time it was more impressive. Tilden's victory at the Proviso field house on February 29 and March 1, was by virtue of 26 points to Waukegan's 20. The Waukegan entries, coached by Otto Bay, were in the running right up to the wire. New Trier, champions in 1950 and 1951, tied with Proviso, 1945 champions, with 16 points to win third place honors.

In winning the title, Tilden took championships in the 120-pound class (Charles Anderson) and in the 165-pound class (Jack Monroe). Hicks' boys also scored seconds in the 103-pound and 145-pound classes. The remaining 6 points came on falls during the various rounds of the Finals. New Trier also scored two firsts, when Glen Boore decisioned Tilden's Walter Slaughter in the 103-pound class and Steve Kling won the 127-pound class on a default.

Larry Ten Pas, Waukegan, repeated his championship as 145-pounder when he pinned Tilden's Tom Carver in 41 seconds of the final match. Bob Konovsky 1951 heavyweight champion, lost to Bob Foster of Blue Island on a Referee's decision.

Iowa

By FINN B. ERIKSEN

The 1951-52 interscholastic season in Iowa got under way with the annual wrestling clinic sponsored by the Iowa High School Athletic Association at the Iowa Teachers College Field house November 17, 1952.

The four state district wrestling tournaments were held February 15 and 16 at New Hampton, Mount Vernon, Des Moines and Eagle Grove. The first and second place winners qualified for the state wrestling tournament held at Mason City February 29 and March 1, 1952. More than 3000 enthusiastic fans witnessed the finals in the state tourney.

The tournament proved to be a close battle between several schools, with Waterloo West successfully defending its team championship. The Waterloo wrestlers, coached by Bob Siddens, won two individual championships and one second place to score 15 points and win the team title. This is the first time in the history of high school wrestling in Iowa that a school with only three entries has been able to win the tournament.

Teams from Mason City and Davenport were in the running for the team title almost until the last match had been wrestled.

More than 300 wrestlers again competed in the Waterloo "Y" tournament February 22 and 23, 1952.

A motion picture was taken of all the final championship matches by the Iowa High School Athletic Association.

New Jersey

By T. RALPH WILLIAMS, Roselle Park High School

Washington High School won the New Jersey High School Wrestling Tournament for the second consecutive year. Washington added to its laurels by having one of its wrestlers, Ronald Marinelli, win the award for the outstanding wrestler of the meet. Rahway took second in the tourney and Somerville third.

Sectional champions were: Leonia, Washington, Roselle Park and Paulsboro. As usual the tournament was under the auspices of the NJSIAA, but was run by the NJ Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association.

About 30 schools have wrestling on a varsity basis in the state. Undeafated

Union met undefeated Roselle Park before over a thousand spectators, while Washington continued to wrestle before packed gyms.

The 1951-52 wrestling season for high schools in the Greater Cleveland Metropolitan Area was brought to a successful close by the Annual State Invitational Wrestling Tournament held at Euclid High School on February 29 and March 1.

A surprise of the meet was the defeat of the only defending title holder, Vincent Matteucci. William Vigh of Euclid defeated the West High matman in the 139-pound class by 4-2.

James Dregalla of John Marshall, a sophomore, accomplished the fastest fall in 1:01 with Robert Holman of Akron East High following closely with a fall in 1:12. Carl Rhodes of Bedford High School, who captured the 166-pound title, was credited with the distinction of scoring the most falls and scoring the most team points in the meet with three and nine, respectively.

Milwaukee South Division captured its third straight state championship, piling up as many points as the next three teams combined and taking six of the ten individual titles.

Coach John Schram, in his first year at South Division, brought his team into the meet with a perfect dual meet record of 18 victories without a loss.

Trailing South in the final results were: Madison East, Milwaukee Washington, West Milwaukee, Racine Horlick, Stevens Point, Beloit, Wisconsin High, Madison Central, Madison West, Milwaukee Pulaski and Racine Park.

Several other schools sponsored wrestling, but did not enter or failed to qualify boys for the tournament. Indications are that half a dozen or more schools will add wrestling to their programs in 1953.

Academy School Tournament

By FREDERICK R. KUHN, Coach, Mercersburg Academy

For the first time in seventeen years of the Lehigh University Interscholastic tournament two teams were tied for the championship, Hill School and Wyoming Seminary each with 23 points.

Nineteen schools from six states participated and were represented by 98 wrestlers. The meet was held March 7 and 8.

Blair School finished third with 22 points before good crowds in Grace Hall. Eight schools won individual championships with Hill the only team to win two first places. A total of 37 falls were recorded during the tourney.

Constantine Filipos of Valley Forge M.A. was voted the outstanding wrestler, repeating his 1951 championship in the 123-pound class. He notched three falls to win.
