ON THE COVER: Phenomenal Dan Gable, two-time national collegiate champion from Iowa State University and the outstanding performer in last season's NCAA finals. Goals of the 137-pound senior from Waterloo, Iowa, include winning a third national title this campaign and becoming a member of the 1972 Olympic team. Gable's astounding record includes 148 straight wins in high school and collegiate competition, 81 by pins. Called "The Machine" because of his precision-like devotion to the sport, the Cyclone athlete is majoring in physical education and lives in a house off campus with four other members of the Iowa State wrestling team.

not an ache in an acre.

If all the Polvomite® wrestling mats used by over 5000 schools and colleges were placed side by side, they would cover some 5,000,000 sq. ft. More than 114 acres of wrestling mat surface! The world's finest.

And not an ache in an acre. Here's why:

- Polvomite mats absorb up to 40% more shock than any other foam mats.

- there's no injury-causing bottoming or rebound.

- the exclusive PEC-10® coating provides firm, fast footing.

- the coating is non-abrasive to prevent mat burns.

Besides that, Polvomite mats are non-absorbent, easy to clean, lightweight (under .8 lb. per sq. ft.), non-ripping, and long wearing.

This is the original plastic-coated, all-foam mat for wrestling and for gym use—developed by Protection Equipment in 1954—made in a factory built specifically for production of foam wrestling and gym mats.

National Collegiate Championships

By JESS HOKE

Editor, Amateur Wrestling News

The weather was so beautiful during the 39th National Collegiate Championships at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, March 27-29, that it was hard to believe that a cyclone was raging inside Smith Fieldhouse where the Iowa State Cyclones ripped apart their competition and shredded scoring records in running away with their third national title.

The unheralded Iowans, who finished a poor third in the Big Eight Conference two weeks earlier on their own mats, scored 104 points to far out-distance Oklahoma's 69, although the two teams each had four finalists and won three individual titles. The difference was in consolations, where Iowa State picked up four fifth-place finishes and one sixth.

Oregon State nipped Michigan State for third, its highest finish in the national championships, and Cal Poly edged Oklahoma State, the defending champion, for fifth. Oregon State and Cal Poly each claimed one champion, with the Spartans and Cowboys being blanked in the winner's circle. The sixth-place finish of Oklahoma State tied its all-time low and its failure to crown a champion was only the fourth miss in the meet.

Filling out the top 10 teams were Iowa, UCLA, Michigan and Temple. Temple edged into the elite group for the first time on the strength of its first National Collegiate champion. Just barely behind were Hofstra, Maryland, Washington, Colorado State College, Indiana State and Oregon.

The 384 participants, representing 110 schools, set records for the meet and overflowed BYU's excellent facilities for first-day competition. Previous records of 382 and 103 were set at Penn State last year. Iowa State's 104 points broke the previous high of 87, held jointly by the Cyclones and Oklahoma State.

Magnificent Dan Gable, Iowa State captain, won his second National Collegiate title, moving up from 130, where he won last year. He pinned all five of his opponents at 137 to win the Gorriaran trophy and was named outstanding wrestler as well. Ken Melchoir, Lock Haven State, was the only other defending champion, and he moved up from 115 to 123, where he lost in the quarterfinals and did not reach the consolations.

Gable not only spearheaded the Iowa State physical attack but was the ringleader in the psychological warfare that propelled the entire team into fired-up performances. Ten of the 11 members scored points.

Iowa State's other individual champions were Jason Smith, 167 and Chuck Jean, 177. Oklahoma's champions, all runnersup a year ago, were David McGuire, 130, who also won the title in 1967; Mike Grant, 145, and Cleo McGlory, 160. The other champions were John Miller, 115, Oregon; Wayne Boyd, 123, Temple; Gobel Kline, 152, Maryland; Tom Kline, 191, Cal Poly, and heavyweight Jess Lewis, Oregon State.

Boyd, McGuire, Kline, McGlory and Kline are seniors. Miller, Gable, Grant, Smith and Lewis are juniors. Jean is a sophomore.

College Division Championships

By WAYNE SHAW

Sports Information Director, Cal Poly

Tradition was shattered and records set in bunches during the seventh annual NCAA College Division Championships at San Luis Obispo, Calif., March 14-15. Three defending champions were successful in their title defenses while two others were unseated.

Host Cal Poly wrapped up the team title at the conclusion of the semifinals en route to a record-setting point accumulation of 127. Coach Vaughan Hitchcock's team became the first three-time winner and the initial team to be successful on its home mat. The Mustangs' 46-point margin over runnerup Colorado State College was another new record. The Bears from Greeley were established as the pre-meet favorite on the strength of a 21-6 dual meet triumph over Cal Poly during the regular season.

More than 10,000 sat in on the four sessions of the two-day tourney, including a throng of 3,500 that jammed Men's Gym for the finals. The record crowds watched 277 wrestlers from 70 colleges. The entries were second largest in both categories.

Joe Wiendl of Wilkes, 160, Tom Kline of Cal Poly, 191, and heavyweight Kent Osboe of Northern Iowa won their second straight titles but Northeast Missouri's Curd Alexander, 115, lost in the quarterfinals and Cal Poly's John Finch was pinned in the 152 finals.

Carl Ragland, Old Dominion, scored his fourth fall over Finch in 4:55 to take the 152 crown. He also earned the "outstanding wrestler" award and the Manuel Gorriaran trophy for accumulating the most falls in the least time, four in 14:30.

Poly had six finalists and four of them won titles to tie the meet mark for most champs from one school. Terry Hall was forced into overtime to capture 115 honors over Moorhead State's John Morley, 9-9, 4-0. John Woods took 167 honors after finishing second in 1968. He bested Portland State's Rich Wright, 8-4. Ken Bos, third as a junior, took 177 laurels with a 5-2 nod over Kemper Chafin, UC Davis. Kline repeated at 191, beating Chris Feder of C. W. Post, 10-2.

Wiendl prevailed at 160, beating Poly's Rick Arnold for the title, 3-2. Osboe whipped Mankato State's Al Blanshan, 11-0, in the heavyweight final.

Chuck Seal, Portland State, the 152 champ as a soph and 145 runnerup in '68, pinned Jeff Fern, Humboldt State, in 3:20 for the 145 title. The third time was the charm for Northwest Missouri's Paul Stehman at 137. He decisioned Colorado State's Mike Rogers, 9-2, in the championship match after placing fifth and fourth the previous two years.

Top-seeded Len Groom of Colorado State breezed to the 130 title with a 7-3 triumph over Marv Reiland of Northern Iowa in the finals. John Walter, Oswego State, a runnerup in '68, took the 123 division by pinning Western Illinois' Scott Clark in 54 seconds.

In addition to Cal Poly's four champions, the Mustangs grabbed two seconds, a pair of thirds and one fifth.

Runnerup Colorado State had six place winners as it totaled 81 points. With four place winners, Northern Iowa finished third with 49 points.

COLLEGIATE REVIEWS

Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association

The strong and balanced squad from the United States Naval Academy romped to its second straight championship of the EIWA in Princeton University's new Gladwin Gymnasium, scoring 83 points, 20 more than second-place Army and 35 more than Penn State and Lehigh, which tied for third. The Middies won five individual titles in the 10 events, sewing up their crown early in the final evening.

Greg Smith, Army's 167-pounder, won the Bill Sheridan Memorial Award presented to the wrestler scoring the most falls in the least aggregate time. The coaches' Outstanding Wrestler Award went to Clyde Frantz, Penn State 145-pounder, and the John Fletcher Award for the wrestler who accumulated the most career tournament points went to Navy 137-pounder Steve Comiskey.

Helms Foundation Amateur Wrestling Hall Of Fame

The Amateur Wrestling Hall of Fame was established by the Helms Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles in 1957 with an original selection of five wrestlers, nine coaches and one contributor.

Since 1957 annual elections to the Hall of Fame have been held. With the announcement of six additions for 1969, the total number to be honored for their outstanding contributions to the sport is now 113, including 50 wrestlers, 45 coaches and 18 contributors.

Elections to the Amateur Wrestling Hall of Fame are made by the Helms Hall Board as a result of recommendations made by the Amateur Wrestling Hall of Fame Committee, headed by Jess Hoke, editor and publisher of Amateur Wrestling News.

A permanent trophy for amateur wrestling is maintained in Helms Hall and members of the Hall of Fame whose names are inscribed thereon are as follows:

FOR THAT EXTRA MARGIN OF SAFETY

Emblems and Artwork a Specialty

ZORBALITE WRESTLING MATS

Manufactured 1 3/16" thick with an embossed surface, Zorbalite coated foam mats are the lightest weight, toughest, most shock absorbing mats available. Latest technology is your assurance of many years of satisfactory service.

This is the new mat you have been hearing about. When a careful comparison of all mats is made Zorbalite is specified. There is no equal.

Sold nationally through franchised dealers. Write for specifications and sample bid forms.
