Upper Iowa University

ABOUT UPPER IOWA

Since 1857, Upper Iowa University has been preparing students to succeed – in the classroom and in the world. Our rich history, coupled with a student-centered mission, has created a springboard for UIU to become a recognized innovator in education.

UIU's reputation grows from our unique course offerings, online learning programs, affordability and the success stories of our alumni. Our dedication to students can be seen in our opportunities for dual enrollment, traditional, transfer, military, international and graduate students. UIU students often juggle multiple commitments outside of their educational pursuits, and our flexible schedule helps students succeed.

An Upper Iowa University education is always within reach, through our main campus in Fayette, Iowa, our multiple regional education centers around the world and our far-reaching online and distance learning programs.

Upper Iowa is the only university in the state of Iowa that competes at the NCAA Division II level, with 23 sports, including 20 NCAA programs. The Peacocks are in their final year of membership with the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference and will be joining the Great Lakes Valley Conference in all 20 NCAA sports in the fall of 2023.

IMPACT TESTED. EXPERT APPROVED.

PRACTICE SMARTER. PRACTICE LONGER. RECOVER FASTER.

RESILITE CLASSIC MATS ARE THE BEST MATS FOR THE WRESTLING ROOM. PERIOD.

A solid foundation of intensity, conditioning, and skill provides the base to build a wrestling program. Resilite's Classic Mat is the only one that protects wrestlers in each phase of the sport by absorbing their impact with the best protection on the market. Every time you use your Resilite wrestling mat, you can rest assured that athletes are as protected as they can be. Set your program apart from the rest with Resilite's Classic Mats.

A WAY OF LIFE

JB ALPHA 2.0 | UNITED

"Wrestling transcends sport, race, gender, class, culture... everything. As we grapple with one another, we become closer. Our divisions fall and our similarities are exposed. Although opponents, there is a mutual respect that exists. Very few are courageous enough to step into the circle together; it is through this struggle we are... UNITED."

RICK SANDERS

IN THE MOMENT

BIOGRAPHY OF AN OLYMPIAN
BAHNE BAHNSON

RICK SANDERS was known to many as the first wrestling hippie. A product of the 1960s counterculture, Rick's unabashed approach to a life of total personal freedom rankled many in the sport's traditional ascetic culture. At mat-side, he stood out with his long hair, beard, and love beads. On off hours, he drank beer, studied nightlife religiously, and whenever possible, he listened to loud rock and roll.

But through it all, he impressed. With a stellar college record of 103-2, Rick was named Outstanding Wrestler at NIAA, D-II, and D-I levels of competition—the only wrestler to earn the title at all three levels. He became America's first ever freestyle wrestling World Champion in 1969. And he medaled at the prestigious 1968 and 1972 Olympic Games, competing alongside the likes of Bobby Douglas, Wayne Wells, and Dan Gable. Fifty years after his tragic death,

FloWrestling placed Sanders 21st on their recent assessment of the top 100 best wrestlers, with Mark Bader calling him wrestling's "Original Godfather of Funk." Despite high expectations and strong opponents (on and off the mat) Rick Sanders continued to live life and wrestle on his own terms: spirited, unorthodox, and dedicated to the sport that he loved.

FROM THE DESK OF NCAA PRESIDENT CHARLIE BAKER

Dear students, families and fans,

Thank you for coming, and welcome to the 2023 winter sports championship season. Championship events are the pinnacle of NCAA competition, and we thank you for supporting the student-athletes who make it all possible. Years of sweat, perseverance and fine-tuning their skills have led them here for a chance at a national championship. And to the coaches, event hosts and countless others who make these events possible, thank you for your hard work. The NCAA has more than 500,000 student-athletes and 1,200 schools and conferences across three divisions. You're witnessing the best of the best.

As I begin my tenure as NCAA president, I'm excited to get out and cheer along with you. I'm a former student-athlete. My wife, my brother and two of my three children also were student-athletes. I'm a firm believer that there's no greater experience for young people than college athletics. It opens doors to opportunity, forges friendships and captivates a nation. It teaches young people about accountability, teamwork and hard work. That's why I am working hard to transform the NCAA in this new era of competition, so it can best serve the student-athletes who make it all possible and the fans who support them.

You're witnessing the best of the student-athlete experience. College sports are the envy of the world and set the standard for opening up opportunities for young people.

We hope the memories you create here last a lifetime. Enjoy your experience and thank you for your support.

Charlie Baker
